This matter came before the Honorable Judge Anthony J. Russo on the Trustees’ Motion to Strike the Open Letter Filed by Interested Party Defendant John E. Rupert, filed on March 17, 2015 by Attorneys Kip Reader and Nicholas B. Wille on behalf of Defendant Trustees of The Clifton Park Trust.

The Court finds, upon review of the file in its entirety, that the Trustees’ Motion to Strike the Open Letter Filed by Interested Party Defendant John E. Rupert is not well-taken and should be dismissed as moot for the reason that the relevant letter was returned to Mr. Rupert on March 11, 2015, and any reference thereto was removed from this Court’s docket and case file that same date.

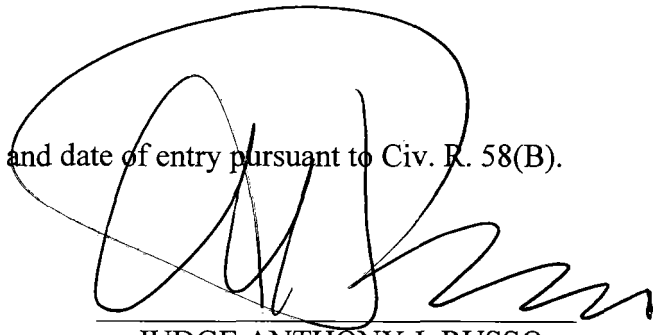

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Trustees’ Motion to Strike the Open Letter Filed by Interested Party Defendant John E. Rupert is hereby DISMISSED AS MOOT.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Clerk of Court shall serve upon Plaintiff Arthur P. Dueck’s Attorney and Defendant The Clifton Club

Company's Attorney notice of this judgment and date of entry pursuant to Civ. R. 58(B).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
